

Sharanda Didier

Event Coordinator

Sharanda Didier joined ITAC in January 2008 in the position of Administrative Assistant. In her present role, she is responsible for managing the logistics for all ITAC's events.

Sharanda also assists ITAC's president with the administration for ITAC's Board of Directors and assists in the outreach to US and state elected officials.

Formerly a Conference Coordinator for Sentry Hospitality, Sharanda was responsible for making sure that the meetings and conferences for Morgan Stanley's Brooklyn location were successfully scheduled and carried out as planned.

Sharanda received her Associate of Arts degree from S.U.N.Y Delhi and continues to pursue her Bachelor's in Communications and Literature at C.U.N.Y City College.
